ACCUSED DISMISSED.

The case of the young man employed as a public school teacher who was charged with assaulting a pupil last Tuesday afternoon came up in the Police Court this morning. The defendant was represented by Mr. Gardner L. Boothe and the plaintiff by Mr. Robinson Mon-

The complainant stated that the paper which was under his desk and that he refused to do so, inasmuch as he bad not placed it there; also that the terest was read by Mrs. Robert C. Powteacher ordered him to pick up some teacher had previously directed another ell and business of importance was trans boy to remove the paper and that he had acted. The annual election of officers refused to obey the order. The boy averred that the teacher had slapped him on the face and head, superinducing the carache and headache.

The lather of the boy stated that he was compelled to purchase remedies for these disorders on the night following the evening of the assault.

Several pupils who witnessed the punishment were put on the stand, some of whom thought that the teacher slapped and tusseled with the boy for fifteen minutes. One of the youngsters testi-fied that the complainant kicked some of the paper under the deak and He at first in the form of a request from "Il Tro asked the complainant to pick up the paper. He was met with a refusal, and the sextat from "Lucia di Lammerwhen he commanded the youth to obey him the boy was defiant and forced the teacher to resort to corporal punishment.

The teacher also stated that a boy he had previously directed to nick up the doct in the boy was defined as the doct in the doct had previously directed to pick up paper when told to do so and who did not heed the request, was on his way out said there was no evidence to sustain the charge of assault, and exonerated the social that the first the deficacies of the sesson were served, and games were indulged in until a late hour. The rooms accused. The justice also called atten-tion to the fact that a teacher is in the place of a parent when in charge of a place of a parent when in charge of a school and has the right to resort to such spunishment as would be used by a father in case a child is refractory. In the case before the court a pupil refused to accede to a request from his teacher and eventually defied his command. Besides, the justice said, scholars abould hear in the justice said, scholars should bear in mind that they are being educated in a costly public school system and everything reasonable is being done in the interest and comfort of the scholars. The latter therefore should vie with those having the system in charge and be obedient to those over them.
